Wants Uniform Count.

That there should be some uniformity in the marking of ballots was the unanimous opinion of the committee, but the majority favored the "solid shot" pian adopted by the city comshot" plan adopted by the city committee, in preference to the procedure laid down in the Byrd primary law, it was the conflict between these two plans that caused the cloud of uncertainty which led Captain Curtis to ask for a recount.

With the consent of all parties, C. D. Langhorne, a minority stockholder, following a compromise contract between the commission and the company, entered a friendly suit to test Franklin, defeated candidate for justice of the peace for Madison Ward, asking for a recount.
